A Party Game for the Certified Music Heads

Who's the real Music Head in the group?

Basic Rules

To start the game, players break off into two teams of at least 2 players on each team. Both teams will battle on a race to score 100 points. Each round is 30 seconds long, if your team successfully earn at least 5 points within that time then you can continue to play without giving the opposing team a turn. If you do not earn at least 5 points within the round then you must hand over the mic to the opposing team, it's their turn to rack up the scoreboard. First team to 100 points wins.

House Rules

After picking the card level you and your teammate(s) are comfortable with, the player who picks the card will read or sing the lyrics out loud to their teammate(s), if the reader can recite the lyrics in the manner that it was composed, then they have earned 1 POINT. If your teammate(s) can complete the next line of lyrics in the song, that is 1 POINT. If your teammate(s) can correctly name the artist or band of the song, that is 1 POINT. If your teammate(s) can correctly name the title of the song, that is 1 POINT.

Combining the difficulty score with the scores earned from being a skilled music head, each team can potentially earn 7 points each play, that is if you play your cards right. If the team successfully earns at least 5 points before the sand timer runs out, then they can proceed with the race.

THE READER MUST ROTATE EACH ROUND; another player on your team must choose the card even after a successful round.

How to Earn Points

Each round consists of a battle between both teams. The first team will grab a card, either gold, platinum or diamond. The cards rank in difficulty and initial points.
